24" Grab-and-Go Open Refrigerated Floor Self-Serve Display Case

ITEM: 25825

MODEL: RS-CN-0250

Display your products on the go with this slim unit, ideal for tight spaces.

This open refrigerated floor display case is the perfect for showcasing products in restaurants, cafés, and bakeries, where space is limited. Featuring a sleek, durable design, this unit offers excellent visibility and fits easily into compact spaces. Its open front and crystal-clear glass ensure products are easily seen and accessible to customers. Ideal for grab-and-go service, it features precise digital temperature controls to maintain safe and consistent cooling. Adjustable shelves provide flexibility to accommodate a variety of product sizes, and a pull-down curtain helps retain cold air when the case is not in use.

The unit uses eco-friendly R290 refrigerant for efficient cooling and features LED lighting to highlight products while saving energy. For convenience, the display case features casters and a sturdy stand for easy movement, installation, and cleaning, while also protecting floors and enhancing space flexibility.
